

From the Desk of Nicholas Claus

Dear _____,

In only a few days, I'll be departing for my long trip. While it will be a long trip, I am excited to visit you. The elves tell me that you completed all your lessons this year, wow! It's tough being 9 and you're so smart for your age.

As I prepare to leave, I'll check on the little elves who are busy making all the gifts and toys for the good boys and girls. It looks as though they were making you a new princess doll! The sleigh is loaded and we are headed your way very soon!

Santa Clause

Warmest wishes for a wonderful holiday season!
